RE: United Decorators

Based on our relationship with United on our various projects, the most outstanding feature is their attention to detail, regardless of the size of the project. Working with Paul Sajovits has been a pleasure, as he keeps all members of the project informed throughout the entire process, from furniture pick-up to delivery on site, ensuring a smooth and efficient work process. United stands by the quality of their work and will do everything in their power to accommodate their clients' needs. It has been a pleasure working with them.
